

Aim

To find, identify and record as many species of plants and animals as possible in Tucker Valley in 24 hours. The experts will start searching on Saturday 17th November from 3pm, the public can join in on Sunday 18th

Location

Base Camp - Macqueripe Bay car park
Walks - all over Tucker Valley

Public Events

Sunday 18th November

The base camp will be open to the public from 8:30am
The event will finish at 3pm when we will announce the grand total of species recorded.

Guided Walks

9am - Birds

10am - Mammals, Reptiles, Amphibians

11am - Plants

12pm - Freshwater Life

1pm - Mini Beasts

Come to the Base Camp in the morning to register for the walks - limit of 30 people per walk on a first come first served basis. Bring sensible footwear, bug spray, sun-screen, water and your camera!

All day at the Base Camp

Watch the experts and scientists at work identifying a variety of plants and animals

See tanks and aquariums with live animals collected during the survey

Informative displays by TTFNC, Asa Wright Nature Centre, EMA Youth Ambassadors, CABI/Ministry of Food Production, Wildlife Section

Display of live animals by Zoo to You (Zoological Society of Trinidad and Tobago)

Contact Information

Email: biologicalrecordingtt@gmail.com

Phone: Mike Rutherford on 329 8401

Facebook group: Tucker Valley Bioblitz 2012

