

RED PALM MITE THREATENS COCONUT AND MORICHE PALMS IN THE NARIVA SWAMP

FOOD FOR MACAWS
AND PARROTS

PHOTOS COURTESY BY SANDRA FORTSON
KANDICE MCKENNA
CHRISTINE DWANER

FIELD INFESTATION

RED PALM MITE INFESTED MORICHE PALM LEAVES

RED PALM MITE INFESTATION ON COCONUT AND MORICHE PALMS

The Moriche Palm is a habitat and source of food for macaws and parrots. Decline of the Moriche Palm as a result of Red Palm Mite infestation can lead to migration of these birds and a reduction in their populations in the Nariva Swamp.